DECLARATION OF HELEN DAVIS CHAITMAN
IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANTS' MOTION
FOR MANDATORY WITHDRAWAL OF THE REFERENCE

<sup>1</sup> This motion is filed by Becker & Poliakoff LLP on behalf of 313 defendants in 108 clawback actions filed by Irving H. Picard, Trustee, as listed on Exhibit A hereto.

I, Helen Davis Chaitman, hereby declare, under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, as follows:

1. The Trustee has sued the Defendants in substantially identical actions to recover withdrawals that they took in the ordinary course of their investment affairs from their BLMIS accounts. The complaints against the Defendants were filed in December 2010 but summonses were not issued and the complaints were not served, in many instances, until several months thereafter. With respect to all of the Defendants, their time to answer the complaints filed against them has been extended by the Trustee and has not yet expired. The Defendants intend to move to dismiss the complaints on numerous grounds that are based upon the federal and state securities laws and upon the United States Constitution.

2. The Trustee has conceded that the Defendants were “innocent” investors; that is, that they had no knowledge that BLMIS was a fraud. The Trustee’s theory is that the Defendants withdrew from their BLMIS accounts, over a period extending as long as 50 years, more money than they, or their parents, or their grandparents, invested, and that they have a legal obligation to return to the Trustee the amount by which their withdrawals exceeded their investments.

3. The causes of action the Trustee has asserted against the Defendants are fraudulent transfer and preference claims, pursuant to the avoidance provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. Sections 544, 547 and 548, and pursuant to New York Debtor and Creditor Law (the “clawback actions”). However, the issue of whether the Trustee has the right to bring the clawback actions is subject to substantial dispute and requires resolution of issues of first impression.

4. True and correct copies of the following documents are attached hereto.

16. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
